Sun come shining through
You are still dreaming
I can hardly believe it
I'm here with you
I hear you breathing

Lying in you arms
That I share with you
I tried to capture the moment

Can this be true
You belong to me
Can this be true
I belong to you
You belong to me
I belong to you
Tell me this is true

Your heart is beating
Drowning in your eyes
The world outside it feels so cold
But it's warm here with you

Hours they go by
My love keeps growing
It's like we live in slow motion
I'm so lost in you
Can this be true
I belong to you
You belong to me
I belong to you
You belong to me
Can this be true
Tell me this is true
I belong to you

Can this be true
You belong to me
Can this be true
You belong to me
I belong to you

Can this be true
I belong to you
Can this be true
You belong to me
I belong to you
You belong to me
I can't believe it's true
