I've dialed your number
Half a thousand times
Hoping just to hear your voice
On the other line

I never had the courage
To finally make that call
I've been missing you so much
Have you been missing me at all?

I need you here now
More than ever before
'Cause if you're not by my side
Then tell me what is worth living for

I never had the courage
To tell you how I feel
But honestly I've always loved you
And I promise I always will [instrumental]

Don't take your time
Coming home tonight
'Cause every second wasted
I'm here holding on for life

And with every breathe I take
I pray you'll find
That I'm the boy
You can't get off your mind

I never had the courage
To tell you this before
But every day away from you
Just makes me love you more
