It's getting late,
Soon I'll fall asleep and dream of her.
Did you do the same?
This is the perfect ending to the perfect day.
She's everything I hoped for.
Should I let her know I feel this way?
Let the words spill from my lips
And hope that it's not all there good for.
One things for sure I can't let this one get away.
She's everything I hoped for,
Everything I hoped for and more.

[Chorus]

Petal for petal everybody knows,
That your best bet is a rose to tell you.
Does she love me?
Does she love me not?
Everybody says that I don't stand a chance.

[Chorus]

Fall arrived and so quickly sent a chill through my bones.
The Autumn weather wraps me in it's arms tonight.
I wont sail far pass the daffodils and grassy hills of spring.
I'll wait for you next year, when the seasons turn.

Petal for petal everybody knows,
That your best bet is a rose to tell you.
Does she love me?
Does she love me not?
Everybody says that I don't stand a chance.

It's getting late, soon I'll fall asleep and dream of her.
Did you do the same?
This is the perfect ending to the perfect day.
She's everything I hope for and more.
