Lately I've been getting impatient
I can feel every second of every hour every day

Lately I've been thinking too much and The thought of all the years I'll have to wait keeps me awake

Time is passing oh so slowly, oh
They say the futures looking bright
And I know these things take some waiting but Aren't we told that all the time?

Lately I've been feeling like I am Stuck with my roots in the ground but I am ready to move on

Lately I've been searching for words to Describe how I'm feeling but lately all the words I have are wrong

Time is passing oh so slowly, oh
They say the futures looking bright
And I know these things take some waiting but
Aren't we told that all the time?

Time is passing oh so slowly, oh
They say the futures looking bright
And I know these things take some waiting but
Aren't we told that all the time?
