When a man loves a woman, he gets to her, into her and onto her
When a man loves a woman, he knows just what to do
When a man loves a woman, he treats her good, he tell her things and buy her things
When a man loves a woman, he knows just what to do

Give me the loving, give me the feeling, give me the
touch
Give me the movement, give me the sorrow, give me
the stuff

When a man loves a woman, he wears her out he breaks her heart and steals her lust
When a man loves a woman, he knows just what to do
When a man loves a woman, he beats her up, abuses her and calls her things
When a man loves a woman, he knows just what to do

Give me the loving, give me the feeling, give me the
Give me the movement, give me the sorrow, give me
the stuff
Give me the loving, give me the feeling, give me the
Give me the movement, give me the sorrow, give me
the stuff

Give me the loving, give me the feeling, give me the
Give me the movement, give me the sorrow, give me
the stuff
Give me the loving, give me the feeling, give me the
Give me the movement, give me the sorrow, give me
the stuff
