Im sitting by the phone - a friday night alone,
I thought i missed your call - that wasn't it at all,
You said you've met new friends, thats where our story ends,
But in the end- Im leaving you behind.

I sang so sweetly-Your gonna miss me, and that I'm better on my own, You'll see, there's better things in life for me-don't follow me...

Because i'm better off alone-that's why i'm writing you this song, and if you find me down the road, I'll be doin just fine-Sorry if i forgot your name.

You said you always loved, the way i cared for you. the way we talk things out just to pull things through. But then you had to go, you said you didnt know, Whether you should stay or leave today?

I sang so sweetly-Your gonna miss me,
and that I'm better on my own you'll see, there's better
things in life for me-don't follow me...

Because i'm better off alone-that's why i'm singing you this song, and if you find me down the road, I'll be doin just fine-Sorry if i forgot your name.
