White line marks ten yards.
The rain reflects our love.
Between the drops fire kisses.
White line right through my heart.

Hey you, have you ever felt that life was blown out
easy?
Hey you, I wish the angels would look before they leap.
Hey you, have you ever felt that life was blown out
easy?
All those kisses.

The photos left to bleach.
The memories we hide.
But sometimes I hear the voice, the laughs, the cries and all that.
Forever, and for all time you'll be mine.

Hey you, have you ever felt that life was blown out
easy?
Hey you, I wish the angels would look before they leap.
Hey you, have you ever felt that life was blown out
easy?
All those kisses.

Is she...?
Hey you...
Is she...?
Hey you...
Is she...?

Why don't you come back home?
I swear that i'll take care of you.
Take care of you...
