

Last Days Of April "Making Friends With Time" time, thought I'd make friends with time that's something that I would't mind to make friends with time fear, whoever came too near whoever made me feel like I could love my whole life

it's only you, it's only you,
it's only you, it's only you,
it's only you

arms, how I hate autumn arms around my throat until I choke breathe in and breathe out night, when I trade day for night when everything seems alright I break through thin ice

it's only you, it's only you,
it's only you, it's only you,
it's only you
