Lost inside, against a war that will never end things that seem to be right now turned feeling so empty but there is no cure
masks can't hide myself anymore

There will be something new?
after sorrows and other lies
I'm fed up with this shit
blood will flow out of my veins
Stop!! Shut!!
Fuck!! You shout..

I'm burning in the truth now
But what can I say? (what can I say?)
Tomorrow is next to me
He's fading in his room though
But what can I say? (what can I say?)
Why he showed his plan?!

"I know what you did last night man.."
(what can I say?)
You're playing with us,
you're are stabbing my lungs
(what can I say?)

I may not listen to your bullshits (nobody wants to lose you)
You cry, but only to have my fake hugs
So I say: "Come on swallow your poison!"
Hey dear! You won't see me die for..

Hey you..
Want me to..
Forget this! Everything.. will be allright!
Truth..
Useless truth!
Useless tears! (Lies!)
Not feel
EMPTINESS
