

Last Martyrs Of A Lost Cause "Never Again"

Visit "Never Again" on MotoLyrics.com

You once asked of me to never do you wrong,
And now I've gone and crossed that line (never again)
Subconsciously knowing that this would happen
A delicate girl's dreams run dry

I am beside myself
This time I've pushed it way too far
And I've never felt so wrong
Sick down inside myself
Tearing at everything alive
That rests inside of me

Now I've lost the time,
Fell sick to wasted mind,
With no one left to blame but me.

And there's no way of showing just how broken my tongue is,
The guilt crawls through my lungs inside

So wrong!
