So you caught me off guard
You knocked my feet right out from under me
(Right out from under me)
Please give me just one chance
I promise you wont regret anything tomorrow

I see you from the stage
You're smiling
The lights in my eyes
They're blinding
All the while
Searching for & finding your face

Is it all make believe?
I can't tell because you're always in my dreams
Is it all make believe?
I can't tell because you're always in my dreams
Do do do do, do do do do
Do do do do, do do do do

I know it sounds cliché
But I'll say it anyway
(Hey hey)

You make my heart beat faster
And I could fall asleep
To the sound of your laughter

Well sometimes late at night
I wonder if you're thinking about me
Well I guess that's all just wishful thinking

Is it all make believe?
I can't tell because you're always in my dreams
Is it all make believe?
I can't tell because you're always in my dreams
You're always in my dreams

I'm having trouble finding
The only difference between
You & my reality
Oh, you & my dreams

And if you want me to
Then I will follow through
Can I still love & lose
Or should I never fall for you?
When you're around I st-st-stutter and stumble
In this stupid humble
Can you hold me tonight?

If you cut me I will bleed
& if you hold me under
I cannot breath

When I look into a crowd
I see you standing
And if you want to hang out
I wont ask you to stay for too long
Bc you're always in my dreams
Do do do do, do do do do

Is it all make believe?
I can't tell bc you're always in my dreams
I let my guard down once again
And I knew it, I knew it
Why can't we be more than friends?
Cause I blew it, I blew it

And I knew that this
Had to be the perfect kiss
If I never get to hold you again
But I blew it, I blew it

I let my guard down once again
And I knew it, I knew it
Why can't we be more than friends?
Cause I blew it, I blew it
I let my guard down once again
And I knew it, I knew it
Why can't we be more than friends?
Cause I blew it, I blew it
