C'mon!

These are bad times for the innocent
These are bright times for the unreflecting

[Chorus:]
Nothing's here to stay
It all could end today
Just focus on your way
To the end of all dismay

Welcome to the age of thoughtlessness
Welcome to the age of entertainment
Welcome to the age of agony
This is the golden age of apathy

[Chorus]

I will not give in
I will not hesitate
I'll be the last one dying
I will not feed the flame

C'mon!

These are bad times for the innocent
Make your life a life to remember

[Chorus]

I'll be the last one dying
