You keep sayin' that you're all alone
I keep sayin' that I didn't mean it
Stop sayin' that you're all alone

The worst is over when you get back home
Come on over
Get in on the freeway
Bundle up because it's getting cold

It's too late
And I saved all these chips
Too late
And I bet all my chips on you

Did we do it again
Is our world on fire
Is our world too hard to describe

Replayin' what was said last night
Weavin' in and out of the _____
Around the corner
Second house on the right
Keep sayin' that you're all alone
Wrong turn, sorry, didn't mean it
Bundle up because it's getting cold

It's too late
And I've got all these thoughts
Too late
I slept on all these flaws
Too late
And I bought all these things
For you

Did we do it again
Is our world on fire
Is our world too hard to describe
Did we do it again
Is our world on fire
Is our world too hard to describe

And all the [unintelligible]

All the time
And all the [unintelligible]
All the time

Did we do it again
Is our world on fire
Is our world too hard to describe

Did we do it again
Is our world on fire
Is our world too hard to describe

Did we do it again
Did we do it again
Is our world on fire
World on fire
Did we do it again
And again
(world on fire)
And again
(world on fire)
And again
(world on fire)
And again
(world on fire)
And again
(world on fire)
