Over
Everyone is over
The record keeps on skipping, yeah
Every time you're not
With me

If I really knew you
Would you be my Valentine?
And if your brain was see-through
Could I read between the lines?

Did they find you
Wine and dine you
Did they get your hopes up?
It doesn't matter when you're gone.

Did he find you
Say he loves you
And you drive him crazy
Doesn't matter when you're gone
Gone
Gone
Gone

You say
You'll keep counting stars until The day
Someone comes along to take
His place
What were you expecting?

Did they find you
Wine and dine you
Did they get your hopes up?
It doesn't matter when you're gone.

Did he find you
Say he loves you
And you drive him crazy
Doesn't matter when you're gone
Gone
Gone
Gone

Anything you want.
Anything you want.

Anything you want.
Anything you want.
Anything you want.

Anything you want.
Anything you want.
Anything you want!

If I really knew you
Would you be my Valentine?
And if your brain was see-through
Could I read between the lines?

Did they find you
Wine and dine you
Did they get your hopes up?
It doesn't matter when you're gone.

Did he find you
Say he loves you
And you drive him crazy
Doesn't matter when you're gone

Did they find you
Wine and dine you
Did they get your hopes up?
It doesn't matter when you're gone.

Did he find you
Say he loves you
And you drive him crazy
Doesn't matter when you're gone

When you're gone
