Try to keep my focus
In this not so ordinary day
Time keeps spinning forward
It's been weeks since I have slept
So thanks a lot

Still she counts the pictures on her wall
She remembers when she used to be so tall

Stomach's butterfly'in
Phone keeps ringin'
Guess you got caught up, again
Said your watch stopped tickin'
How convenient
When I'm the one in love
And you're all drunk
You're so drunk

Never meant to hold you down
Never meant to hold you down
Down, down down down
Never meant to hold you down
Down
Down
Down
Down, yeah!

Still she counts the pictures on her wall
She remembers when she used to be so
Used to be so

Still she counts the pictures on her wall
She remembers when she used to be so tall
