If evil has a scent
I can smell it here right now
Sneaking up from every corner
Let the beast out if you dare
Tame the creature in my dream
I'm begging you great healer

Making a brew that cures the fever
Reading a spell that makes me see
Singing a song that calls the spirits
Scream at the sky and maybe I'll be free

(chorus)
You can take my pain away
It doesn't matter what you say
Never ever let the evil win
You can save my soul right now
And only you know how
Never ever leave me with my sin
Healer hear my prayer

A see a toothless smile

Laughing higher every second
At my long and useless battle
Make the demons disappear
Pray with me in this dark hour
I'm begging you great healer

Making a brew that cures the fever
Reading a spell that makes me see
Singing a song that calls the spirits
Scream at the sky and maybe I'll be free

(chorus)
You can take my pain away
It doesn't matter what you say
Never ever let the evil win
You can save my soul right now
And only you know how
Never ever leave me with my sin
Healer hear my prayer
