Keep it in line, you can save yourself...you can save yourself
Don't waste your time, you can save yourself...just forget the rest
Or suffer the consequence of a life outside of the discipline...
Come on, it's easy to say
I'll try my best to remember as I give it everything I got in me
I will never understand, I thought the gift had no demands
Can you save me now, as I give it everything I got in my 'cause it seems easier for you
I fear that I'm a bit confused, please save me now
As I give it everything I got in me
Keep track of time, you can save yourself...you can save yourself
It's your safety line, you can save yourself...you can save yourself
I'll try my best to remember all that makes me better than you
But will it be enough, will it be enough?
I will never understand, save yourself...
