Don't let the sun go down on you, don't let any trend tell you what to do

Don't let the fire burn out while you sleep

Don't let self pity run your life don't let the pain and strife in

Don't let the depressing time take away from you, away from your happiness

She said, I know I can be much more if you help me off the floor

She said, I wish you could see that it's my destiny I loved you more than ever before, you are my friend

Run for you life, fight for your rights, don't accept anything

Questions the answers, know you'll never know for sure Know everythings going to be okay
