"You Got Me"

Supposedly, you know the way that I should be But you've been keeping quiet, keeping quietly your thoughts away from me
And you're so sure of all the words I need to say Step off the stage we'll talk about how you don't even know me anyway Announce that I was wrong, I thought I did what I was told You got me wrong, you got me wrong, I'm not ashamed of anything
My heart is how it has to be You got me wrong, you got me wrong, and all of this misunderstanding
Come from you not understanding me
Let it go, it's not the rule for everyone But you don't know me anyway...you don't even know
me anyway
Can't we talk, another time away from here
me anyway
There's need for you, there's need for me, don't you agree
me anyway
And in the end, it's not between you and me
me anyway
