There's so much to be rectified, I wonder if I even tried Could I put away the man that I've become

At least I'll try, throw me every word, on everything That ever I did wrong, it's safe to say maybe I lost track Will you be the one to take me back Remind me how the change must start in Tear it down, I'll understand, it wasn't any good for them

We'll try again and know that's not the end

Say what you will, but I've got reasons to believe That everything I said was true, you've got reasons to go on Believing good intentions also kill
I want to be the first to admit that first to step back

Hold on and let me explain that I'm wrong, and don't want to go on
'Cause I can't, can't find the way out, this change that needs to start with Slow down, I'll do anything to move on and build what we needed
I know now where to begin a change that needs to start with only me
Start with only me

want to go on Without this change that starts in me

want to go on
'Cause I can't, can't find the way out, this change that
needs to start with Slow down, I'll do anything to move on and build what
we needed
I know now where to begin, a change that needs to start with only me
