You never break you never fall
Just hang on, just hang on
Look in your eyes and realize
Something's wrong

And you were falling a part
In ways you never knew you could
Your strength is far from where you are
I'll try to heal your scar

And I will I'll stand beside you
In hopes you'll be fine some day soon
You gave your life to me
Return the favor to you
This I promise you

Hold it in lets begin
Don't tell anyone, don't' tell anyone

Shades of black and gray block your sun

And you were falling apart
In ways you never knew you could
Your strength is far from where you are
I'll try to heal your scar

It was you
Held my hand
Helped me grow
Did you know, did you know
You'll always be, you'll always be
Apart of me

And I do yes I will want to
In hopes you'll be fine some day soon
You gave your life to me
Return the favor to you
This I promise you
