if you told me we would find a way
i would believe you
i would believe in you
and even if we stumble all of the way
i would believe you
i would believe i found it hard when losing the ground when glory fades you can't hear a sound i felt so lost inside a dream they boarded up the house of our lives we pulled the nails so we could survive the open doors leave us with two sides

i would believe you

we stepped outside and into the cold you'd think those doors were paved with gold you can't live life as you're told

i would believe you

i will find me
i will find what burns inside

i would believe you

yes i would believe in you
