I wana let you know this ain't no love song
Its about a girl that turns me on and on and on and on
The way she moves it makes me wanna sin
When she smiles its like a slice of heaven

Listen to me girl oh baby do you know what I wanna do
I just wanna get with you

You were the one that turned my head
You were the one that rocked my bed
You were the one with that sick smile
We were in there for a while

You were the one that wants to stay
I was the one that threw it all away
You were the one that needs to cry and
You were the one that holds me dear

Where do where do we go from here
When all these things are out in the clear
Where we stand it's just not all the same
I think your drivin' me your driven me insane

Listen to me girl oh baby do you know what I wanna do
I would run if I was you
