Life, Life is just so unpredictable;
I knew it already is...

A mother finds out her son is gone:
How could it be true? he was so young!
Now she has no more dreams ---
Just nightmares filled with screams...

John didn't think that he would fall;
How could he know he'd lose it all?
How can he find...

Life, Life is just so unpredictable;
I knew it already is...
Life, Life is just so unpredictable,
So have no regrets and just live!

Jenny just took too many pills:
She was so hurt, her heart was filled with pain...
Lives are destroyed every day ---
Who are you to say that "this can't happen to me?"
Take every opportunity!

Life, Life is just so unpredictable;

I knew it already is...
Life, Life is just so unpredictable,
So have no regrets and just live!

Cause life's too short (too short)
To play these games (these games)
So take control (take control)
And don't name names;
Do what you want (do what you want),
Follow your heart (follow your heart)...
So, brace yourself:
Life's about to start!

Life, Life is just so unpredictable;
I knew it already is...
Life, Life is just so unpredictable,
So have no regrets and just live!

Life, Life is just so unpredictable;
I knew it already is...
Life, Life is just so unpredictable,
So have no regrets and just live!
