These days seem all too hard
To think that we've come so far
Yet life breaks us both in two
Forever my guiding light
A reason to make things right
I can't bare to say goodbye
I need you now
How can i go on living on my own
Don't leave me, all alone
I need you by my side tonight
Still asking why?
This whole world comes crashing down
I tried to come to terms
With how these feelings hurt
Somone tell me what to do
I need you now
How can i go on living on my own
Don't leave me, all alone
I need you by my side tonight
Still asking why?
This whole world comes crashing down
It's not fair
Leaving me to be the one to carry on
I can stand to spend this life
Waiting here for you
Don't leave me, all alone
I need you by my side tonight
Still asking why?
This whole world comes crashing down
Don't leave me, all alone
I need you by my side tonight
Still asking why?
This whole world comes crashing down
You and me
