"Hold On"

Hold on to me cause ive been dreaming about
All the time i spent here on my own
Over and over
Dreaming that you're somehow missing me
Lets stay at home tonight
Just hold onto me
Even though things don't seem right
Just hold onto me
Last time we spoke i felt my heart break in two
Everything i say and do
Makes no difference
Dreaming that your somehow missing me
Lets stay at home tonight
Just hold onto me
Even though things don't seem right
Just hold onto me
Im thinkning about what i once said
And all it meant
Im thinking about what you once said
And all it meant
These three words left me reeling
Im still here somehow missing me
Lets stay at home tonight
Just hold onto me
Even though things don't seem right
Just hold onto me
Hold onto me, hold onto me, hold onto me.
