Since I let down my guard
I made it easy for you
To aim straight for my heart
You're the reason that I'm leaving even though it's so hard
Make me believe this is true
If not we're through.
I tried to make sense of all of this,
It's useless when you mean nothing to me
I thought this was meant to be
How stupid of me
Since I made it clear
That we were through
You've gone and done exactly what I thought you'd do
You're the reason that I'm leaving
Excuses will have to do
Make me believe this is true
If not we're through
I tried to make sense of all of this,
It's useless when you mean nothing to me
I thought this was meant to be
How stupid of me
And there's a million things I
Wish I'd said to you
But now I guess I'll never Get the chance to
I can't believe how naive
The two of us have been
But now things change
I rearrange the way things seem
I tried to make sense of all of this,
It's useless when you mean nothing to me
I thought this was meant to be
How stupid of me
How stupid can one person be Someone like me.
