

Last Winter "Kiss So Hard"

Visit "Kiss So Hard" on MotoLyrics.com

You kiss so hard that I stop breathing

So I got your letter early Monday morning and I could not believe my eyes

It said: "things aren't working here, I'm coming home my dear.
Please tell me you havent forgotten me."

You kiss so hard that I stop breathing
and I could stay right here Oh won't you let me?

You kiss so hard that I stop breathing
and I could die right here but you wouldn't let me

Now I'm at the station waiting 7: 30 like your letter clearly stated You said that you'd meet me here but you weren't there my dear
I can't believe you broke my heart again
