"Run Away"

She smiled as a tear ran down her cheek
She left for Chicago before we got a chance to speak
Im left here to carry on alone
Twenty-four seven spent here waiting by the phone.
Im lost again
This makes no sense
Just like that she walked away
Running from mistakes i made
All i ask of her
Please grant me a second chance
This time i will make it last
Just don't runaway.
Runaway
Shes painful at the best of times
Always first to call the shots, first to draw the line
But when i told her what I'd done
Everything just fell apart she felt forced to run
Im lost again
This makes no sense
Just like that she walked away
Running from mistakes i made
All i ask of her
Please grant me a second chance
This time i will make it last
Just don't runaway.
If i could hold your hand right now
You know i would
If i could talk to you right now
You know i would
Please write to me and let me know
How things are trating you
I promise to write back
And let you know how bad i feel.
