People say that dreams mean everything
But when it comes down to it all
It's hard to back it up they let it fall
Stand in line back there with the rest
And live your life like them instead
Put all of those lasting hopes to bed
Life's too short to waste your time
Now's the chance for you to shine
Be strong believe in yourself
And in what you achieve
Don't let them hold you back
Harness your strength and forget about what you lack
Stay positive, no holding back.
Time best spent is time you implement
Conjuring up outlandish games
No matter how far out they sometimes seem
Anything you want is possible
If you commit and see it through

That's exactly what i chose to do.
Im still here as living proof
Despite it all i know it's true
Be strong believe in yourself
And in what you achieve
Don't let them hold you back
Harness your strength and forget about what you lack
Stay positive. no holding back
All it takes is time
Look inside and yourself and you'll find
Everything you know you want to be
Lifes to short to waste your time
Now's the chance for you to shine like you always do
Be strong, believe in yourself
And in what you can achieve
Don't let them hold you back
Harness your strenghts and forget about what you lack
Stay positive. no holding back.
