This town seems old
Its had it's time
Patience fades and so do i
Im thinkin bout leavin' everything
Ive ever known behind
Tonights the night to realise
What we want from life
Discontent to simply fall in line
With these ordinary types
This city sky
Turns black and white
Life's passing by
Too god damn fast
There's more to life than this
Im sick of getting left behind

Tonights the night to realise
What we want from life
Discontent to simply fall in line
With these ordinary types
Yeah over and over again
Yeah over and over again
I still believe, i still believe
There's something more for me
Tonights the night to realise
What we want from life
Discontent to simply fall in line
With these ordinary types
