People stare they criticise the way she wears her hair
WHat do they know
Her parents always dissapprove
But this girls knows exactly what she wants to do.
They make her feel like she's to blame
And she attempts to do the same
Tonight she is leaving
No longer getting pushed aside
Still dreaming stop breathing
Drowning in every tear she's cried
Every night she's out until the breaking of morning light
Where does she go
She paints the town all shades of red
She's out of step and feels there's nothing lieft
This can't be healthy does she care

The girl's here, there and everywhere
Tonight she is leaving
No longer getting pushed aside
Still dreaming stop breathing
Drowning in every tear she's cried
This girl is young and she's mess
From always listening to the rest
She needs more time on her own
Tonight she's leaving
All on her own.
Tonight she is leaving
No longer getting pushed aside
Still dreaming stop breathing
Drowning in every tear she's cried
Tear shes' cried
She's cried, shes's cried.
