Summer lights, make me feel so divided
When I turn and see that you're gone
The in and outs, the two of us
Make me feel, like I'm drowning and you're lost
And I'm thinking of, of your demise
Summer lights, make me feel so divided
When I turn and see that you're gone
The in and outs, the two of us
Make me feel, like I'm drowning and your lost
And I'm thinking of, of your demise

Chorus:

Forget me when you're gone
It's so hard to realize
Sometimes I regret, thinking of your demise
Forget me when you're gone
It's so hard to realize
Sometimes I regret, thinking of your demise

Bridge:

All this pain, you feel today
Now you're drowning this parade
All you do, its so far gone
And I say you're cracking up
What you do, it's all you bleed
And you're drowning in your greed
What the hell is going on?

Chorus:

Forget me when you're gone
It's so hard to realize
Sometimes I regret thinking of your demise
Forget me when you're gone
It's so hard to realize
Sometimes I regret thinking of your demise
