"Sweetest Thing"

Have you ever met somebody?
Made you just wanna sing
Made you just wanna talk about it
Tell somebody

And I think you won't testify
Never wanna break up
Just want to wake up right next to you
Getting the best of you

Oh, it's such a pleasure
You make it better, giving a smile to me
[Incomprehensible]
I need you to be there

You are like a shining star
But that's who you are
It's such a shame that God only made one of you
Giving you to me was such a blessed thing

And wherever I go
It's only me and you
And you should always know that

You're just the sweetest thing to me
Sweeter than wine or candy, heaven sent to me
You're just the sweetest thing to me
Sweet like the sunshine after the heavy rain is clear to see

Listen me
I never found a better one to make you settle down
A best friend, never keep you stressing
She's just the one who gave me everything I need
I never had the need to be free

You're the morning, the evening
The sunrise after sleeping, we're never awake
I need you to be there you are
A shining star that's who you are

And wherever I go

It's only me and you
You should always know that

You're just the sweetest thing to me
Sweeter than wine or candy, heaven sent to me
You're just the sweetest thing to me
Sweet like the sunshine after the heavy rain is clear to see

Now for everybody, love somebody
I wanna hear you say, yeah, yeah

You're just the sweetest thing to me
Sweeter than wine or candy, heaven sent to me
You're just the sweetest thing to me
Sweet like the sunshine after the heavy rain is clear to
see

You're just the sweetest thing to me
Sweeter than wine or candy
