(Intro)

So unfair

Just get in love

Sometimes you win, sometimes you lose

Come on

(Verse)

We started it then it went, let it dissolve

And ever since, girl you've been all in my mind

Drinking and thinking, do you ever think about us?

(Do you think about our love love?)

See the fussin and fightin, it came to our head

And you and I both agreed this wasn't it

Stuck in the moment, girl I watched you pack your clothes in a suitcase

Girl, I should've tried to make you stay

I feel I've been robbed and the proof is I'm suffering yea

'Cause all that you left wad the pain, now I'm losing again

(Chorus)

Waitin for it to wait no more

For the comeback and turn my body

Everything that you took endure

Suck to lose, girl you bare without me

Without me, without me

What it means is

Winner takes all of the love yea yea

You want your words? Please come take them back

The ones you said, girl it feels you shot me

Broken faith then you cold like that

Game of luck, turned into a nothing

Love me, love me

What it means is

Winner takes all,

The winner takes all of the love

(Interlude)

Love, love, love

Love, love, love

Love, love, love
Love, love, love
Love, love, love
Winner takes all of the love

(Verse)

I watched you walk hand in hand but not with me no
Was it real? What we had
Girl, I wanna know
Perfect and real quick it ended
I felt my heart explode
You feel my heart explode
I can't describe the feeling I get when I think about the fact that
I will never ever have you
What do you do,
When you really love somebody?
Try to keep it G but you ain't foolin nobody Facing the time really here's
Well cut the hourglass yea
See this clock must've stuck through my pain
Because I'm losing again

(Chorus)

Waitin for it to wait no more
For the comeback and turn my body
Everything that you took endure
Suck to lose, girl you bare without me
Without me, without me
What it means is
Winner takes all of the love yea yea
You want your words? Please come take them back
The ones you said, girl it feels you shot me
Broken faith then you cold like that
Game of luck, turned into a nothing
Love me, love me
What it means is
Winner takes all,
The winner takes all of the love

(Interlude)

It was my move, the king was so weak
'Cause there was my pawn and beside was my queen
And then she left me, it ended in defeat
I guess it's checkmate to the winner

(Chorus)

Waitin for it to wait no more
For the comeback and turn my body
Everything that you took endure
Suck to lose, girl you bare without me

Without me, without me
What it means is
Winner takes all of the love yea yea
You want your words? Please come take them back
The ones you said, girl it feels you shot me
Broken faith then you cold like that
Game of luck, turned into a nothing
Love me, love me
What it means is
Winner takes all,
The winner takes all of the love

(Outro)
It's how it goes
It sucks to be a loser
Especially in love
Winner takes all of the love
