"Holy Spirit"

A ruling master with an iron hand?
A friendly atmosphere?
A distant destiny in outer space,
Not very close and near?

Figment of imagination
For the weak and brainwashed few...
Silent force, unidentified
Is this what God looks to you?

Holy Spirit, Earth Creator,
Sacrificed on Calvary
Love and grace and truth and mercy
Offering Eternity

I think He'd like to introduce himself
In case you haven't heard
A personal God, almighty Trinity
It's written in his Word

If you think we are here by chance
Take a step outside with me
Someone's signature's all over
The Creation, can't you see?
