"I'm On My Way"

Living, dying, laughing, crying
Not quite what it seems
Faith is the gate from surrendered to trying
We have a goal beyond our dreams

Not just existing
We're alive until we're dead
And the grave is not the end

I'm on my way to heaven
Come and follow me
The journey ends in heaven
Hang on and you will see

Loving, hating, caring, killing
What do you wanna reap?
The flesh is weak but the spirit's willing
You want forgiveness, the price is cheap
