let's yell if we see it in ourselves.
the passion to do something more than live inside our culture's fucking walls.

now i don't have the answers of what a perfect world should be.
but we'll start to find the answers
when we find community.
so get up to see the sunlight.

so yeah i must remind myself
i can be active with the activists or sleep in with the sleepers.
but i don't have the answers.
but i know another lonely night on this couch won't do anything for my world or myself.

so next time i hear someone call someone a fag
or a guy call a girl a bitch

i'm going to fucking scream.
yeah next time the passion hits me i'll try to find out
what the pop songs mean.

expressing my guilt through a consumer product doesn't mean i've solved anything.
but as i've always found a way through my pain
i'll find a way through my apathy.
the revolution in video games distracts me from the real thing and from where i need to be - in community
