

Laudamus "Hear My Prayer"

Visit "Hear My Prayer" on MotoLyrics.com

I've walked your path. I've followed my creed
But know I'm astray, are you still in the lead?
Desperate to feel your presence close
Renew Your spirit till my heart overflows

When my last day dawns, when I've won this race
I long to finally meet you face to face

As I reach for the goal

I give you my soul
Guide my way, be my light
As you hear my prayer tonight

So many times I've walked my own way
The goal of this world is to lead me astray
Why I've come back is simple to see
Your love is amazing, so simple and free
