I've been waiting all alone
for you stranger, you're the lighth
the key to my love for my love forever

We're close enough, we're close enough to fall in love.
We're close enough. Just enough to make it last.
Now there's no turning back to do it together.

Open arms reach out to muscle.

And now the ttimes has come to keep the love we found to keep it here forever.

But now, now the ttimes has come to keep the love we found and
keep it here forever.
