Hey hey!
Hey hey! Someone's on the floor!
Hey hey!
Who is she? Tell me who's on the floor!

Her face ripped and torn
As if cobble-stoned!

Save her!
What you waitin for, man?
Kiss her,
Soon she'll be somewhere else!

Hey hey!
Hey hey! Someone's at the door!
Hey hey! Who are they?
Cops are at the door!

What's this?
What's in your hand?
Sharp shine,
Blood seeping down
From her head from her head from her head!

Save her!
What you waiting for, man?
Kiss her,
Soon she'll be somewhere else!

Take her!
What a lover sublime!
Her legs
can be spread anytimeÂ...

So that's what she deserved
For what she's done so far,

If they'll wait for a while
So perfect her body will be!

Save her!
What you waiting for, man?
Kiss her,
Soon she'll be somewhere else!

Take her!
What a lover sublime!
Her legs
can be spread anytime...

So that's what she deserved
For what she's done so far,
If I stab her for a while
She'll be more and more beautiful
Time after time
