I can't pretend anymore
that I am not affected, I'm not moved
I can't lie to myself
that I'm not always thinking of You.
You made strong to show me I'm not weak to fall in love well I thought I'd never need now I can't get enough
I always made it on my own
I always thought that I would keep control
You changed everything I believed in
And now I just can't fight this feeling, baby!

I raise my hands and I surrender
'Cause Your love is too strong
and I can't go on
Without Your tender arms around me.
I raise my hands and I surrender!
I don't wanna resist
cause your touch and kiss
have shattered my defenses!
I surrender.

I have to admit that I
I never thought I'd need someone this way
'Cause You've opened my eyes so that I
I can see so much more.
I always made it on my own
I always thought that I would keep control
You changed everything I believed in
And now I just can't fight this feeling, baby!

I raise my hands and I surrender (Oh, I surrender baby)
'Cause Your love is too strong
and I can't go on
Without Your tender arms around me.
I raise my hands and I surrender!
I don't wanna resist
'cause your touch and your kiss
have shattered my defenses!
I surrender...

I surrender to the feeling in my heart, uhuhu
I surrender to the safety of your heart to the touch of your lips to the taste of your kisses.

(Choir) I raise my hands and I surrender (oh, baby, baby)

'cause Your love is too strong and I can't go on
without Your tender arms around me, hey!|

(Choir) I raise my hands (oh baby) and I surrender (surrender)

'cause Your love is too strong and I can't go on (without you)

without Your tender arms around me, hey!

I raise my hands and I surrender

'Cause Your love is too strong

and I can't go on

Without Your tender arms around me.

And I surrender

(Choir) Surrender...Surrender...

I can't pretend anymore,

I can't lie to myself

that I'm not always thinking of You.
