Dark is the moon in the sky
Soon all these tears will run dry Far is the world I have known The true meaning of love is gone
I'm fighting, defeating this anger inside of me I'm calling, I'm yearning but you will not hear

I followed you, I cared for you.
This love I thought that we shared for better or for worse: Yeah this was what I heard You promised me, made me believe that you would always be there for better or for worse, I don't know where to turn, to turn.

Deep is the pain in my heart Now I don't know where you are I'm sighing, I'm bleeding
These wounds keep on hurting me
I'm falling, recalling, it feels so unreal

I followed you, I cared for you.
This love I thought that we shared
always be there
for better or for worse, I don't know where to turn, to turn.

I followed you, I cared for you.
This love I thought that we shared
always be there
for better or for worse, I don't know where to turn, to turn.

Lost is the sun in your eyes
I don't know the true reason why
