Freeze the Frame where I take the blame.
I'll make you love me if It's all I do.
I've got the keys to your heart, and I'm coming inside.
You're never gonna stop me.
I'll tell the burning to stop, but I'm coming inside.
You're never gonna stop me.
I'll freeze the frame if you'll take the blame.
You're burning up the things you touch,
And the things you love.
You're voice will awaken the man inside.
I've been dying to reach your fire.
All of my dreams will come true tonight.
I've been waiting for all my life.
All of my dreams will come true tonight
All of my dreams will come true tonight
I've got the keys to your heart, and I'm coming inside
You're never gonna stop me.
I'll tell the burning to stop, but I'm coming inside.
You're never gonna stop me.
I've got the keys to your heart burning inside.
You're never gonna stop me.
