Stand and watch
As your prince charming
Walks away

Chorus:
All these feelings bottled up
You can't seem to say
Tell yourself that you'll move on
And find some one else
But the truth is your not so sure

He had the face of an angel
And liked to play guitar
Everthing changed in a moment
And will never be the same
And now he's gone to far
No, never the same as then
Yeah, I remember when

I will whisper in the wind
That I will be ok
Move on and find some one else someday
Then I tell mself the truth
That this time he is really gone

Chorus

You said you're sorry
And still want to be my friend
As far as I'm concerned
We will be until the end
But there's a few things
That I have learned

I smile cause I know
We will always be friends
Then I begin to cry because
That's all we'll ever be
I know your laying with her tonight
But I remember when we danced
In the stars flawless light...

I just wish you could see
I still have these feelings bottled up inside
Things that I could never say
After all that we have been through
I never thought things would end this way

Chorus

You still have the face of an angel
And are more caring than I could ever be
But that November day
When you turned your back and walked away
I told myself that I'll move on
As hard as things have been
I have tried my best
And it's time to put these feelings to rest

When I cry, someone else dries my face
When I scream, someone else fights away my tears
Someone else supplies all the compassion
That I have been lacking all of these years
Inside and out he's better than you were
And now I hope you see

Chorus

That I hope things are never the same
Never the same
Never the same
No I don't want things to be the same
