No one believes me
When I say I've fin'lly found
The girl I'll love
Maybe I've been alone too long

Now my intuition leads me
Movin on the road
It takes me to your door
Coz I know were something strong together

Oh this is not easy for a man
I need to say it
Girl I really mean it
I'm asking you to stay

Come into my life
Tonight will last forever
Nobody's touch has ever been so right
Lets take this all the way

Come into my life
Surrender to the feeling
You've got what I've been needing for so long
So say that you will
Come into my life

I'm through pretending
That I've got everything
A girl could ever need
Baby it's time I saw the light

I was strong and independent
But that never warms me
On the winter's night
And I wanna hold you tight and tell you

Loving you has shown me
What it is I need to feel
When you're least expected
You'll find the one that's real

So come into my life

Tonight will last forever
Nobody's touch has ever been so right
Lets take this all the way

Come into my life
Surrender to the feeling
You've got what I've been needing all along
So say that you will
Come into my life

No one can know how far has it carry us
We take it day by day just walking it half home
Oh I'll try to say it tonight
And I hope it comes out right

Oh I've never been so better
As I have my love

So come into my life
Tonight will last forever

Come into my life
You've got what I've been needing all long
So say that you will

Come into my life
Tonight will last forever

Come into my life
You've got what I've been missing all along
So say that you will(say that you will)
Come into my life (into my life)
