Sometimes when I'm standing all alone
I think of things that I have done
And start to wonder if there's one thing
That means more than others I have known
And suddenly it seems to me
Without your love where would I be

Your love
Has kept me going through good and bad times
It's kept me growing
Your love
Has kept on burning through sweet and sad times
I'll keep returning to the magic of your love

Through the years my dreams may come and go
This fortune is a funny thing
And no one knows what time me bring
And through the highs and lows I know
Yes there's one thing I know for sure
The one thing I've been living for

Your love
Has kept me going through good and bad times
It keeps me growing
Your love
It keeps on burning through sweet and sad times
I'll keep returning to the magic of your love

[Instrumental]

Your love
Has kept me going through good and bad times
It's kept me growing
Your love
It keeps on burning through sweet and sad times
I'll keep returning to the magic of your love
It keeps on burning through sweet and sad times

Your love
Has kept me going through good and bad times
I'll keep returning to the magic of your love

Oh I'll keep returning to your love
