Radio's blastin', I hear they're broadcastin' a signal
That we all should hear They're sendin' a message,
It's fighting the static
I'm listening, I'm quiet, I'm here
Soon
Everything will be magic, my dear
Soon
Everything will be magic, Oh my dear
The birds are directing, the traffic below
In patters ignoring the light
In this motion I'm static, both hopeful and tragic
Eyes up, eyes open and blind
Soon
Everything will be magic, my dear
Soon
Everything will be magic, my dear
I'm waitin' on a sign
I can't believe the time, we're livin' in God let this finally be the one
Cause I heard it all before
And then nothing gets to me
But this time I am listenin', really listenin'
But I'm runnin' out of time
Oh
I see smoke in the distance
The news is just a premonition
Something's changin', something's goin' down
I'll take anything you give me
Anything to know I'm not alone
Hopefully I'm not alone, hopefully we're not alone
Alone
Soon
Everything will be magic, my dear
Soon
Everything will be magic, my dear
Soon
Soon
Everything, everything
And everything is everything is everything
And we are not alone
