I'll never hear the bells if you leave me
I'll never hear the bells
I'll never hear the bells if you leave me
I'll never hear the bells

Do you hear what I hear
When your lips are kissing mine
Can you hear the bells darling?
Can you hear them when I'm, when I'm kissing you?

What do I have to do
To make you feel the tingling too
Can you hear the bells darling?
Can you hear them when I'm, when I'm kissing you?

I hear the bells, oh I hear the bells
Oh ringing in my ears oh, saying do you love me
Do you love me, do you love me
Do you love me like I love you, oh baby

'Cause one thing that I want you to remember
If you ever leave me I believe I'll go insane
And darling I'll never hear the bells again
Darling I'll never hear the bells again
Never oh, never, never, never
No never, never
