Life is good when you dance all night and the world
transmits electric power
The messages you sent to Mars came from your crown of flowers

Have you danced away the hours
Have you danced away the hours

Life is good when the band is smoking hot
The drummer drums like it's the last chance that he got Boats light up the river in a string of flame

Life is good when you know he feels the same thing
When you know he feels the same thing

Going soft like the dawn
And tender green like the shoots of spring
Unfurling on the lawn
Over dale
Over dale
Over sea swell and over sea swell
You never play the Devil's dawn

'Cause you know he'd do the same thing
'Cause you know he'd do the same thing

Yeah
You know he'd do the same thing
Yeah
You know he'd do the same thing
